Central Southeast Ohio Association
Periodic Support Consultations & Boundary Training Exemption Application Form

To maintain good standing or a good covenantal relationship in the Central Southeast Ohio Association (CSE), all authorized persons who hold standing in CSE or serve in CSE must fulfill the following requirements. Exemptions will be granted by the Department for Church and Authorized Ministry (DCAM) on an individual basis to authorized persons who apply for exemption for health reasons or who are not actively involved in any form of ministry. Failure to comply without application for exemption will result in suspension of standing and it will become a part of your permanent record and reported to the National UCC that standing was suspended with cause, and such action will have to be reported on all successive profiles or resumes that are circulate through the UCC Search and Call process. Standing may be reinstated after the requirements have been met and having met with the DCAM.

Boundary Training 1 & 2
All Central Southeast Ohio Association authorized ministers with standing and actively engaged in ministry (including retired ministers who do occasional pulpit supply) are required to complete Boundary Training 1 & 2 encompassing professional ethics and ministerial misconduct once every five years.

Periodic Support Consultation
All Central Southeast Ohio Association authorized ministers with standing and actively engaged in ministry (including retired ministers who do occasional pulpit supply) are required to participate in a Periodic Support Consultation every three (3) years in accordance with the UCC Manual on Ministry, Section 8, Pages 7-8 and 19-23.

To apply for an exemption, please fill out this form and return it to: Central Southeast Ohio Association, 6161 Busch Blvd, Suite 100 Columbus, OH 43229.
