Position Openings

Executive Director of Outdoor Ministries

The Ohio Conference of the United Church of Christ is seeking a leader; a faith formation innovator; an entrepreneur; a deeply committed, progressive Christian who is focused and energized to rejuvenate an established Outdoor Ministries program, primarily at the Templed Hills location in Belleville, OH.

Templed Hills is currently undergoing exciting improvements, environmentally aware upgrades, and investment in camper and visitor experiences. In collaboration with camp-loving communities and agencies, the Executive Director will shape the year-round programming at Templed Hills.

Leading Faithfully: Mobilizing Clergy to Help Respond to Elder Abuse

Leading Faithfully
Mobilizing Clergy to Help Respond to Elder Abuse

Community clergy are often left out of discussions of elder justice, but may be the first individuals who may become aware of elder abuse or exploitation in their faith communities. This educational offering will help "connect the dots" for the faith leaders that serve communities across Ohio.

As of February 2019, clergy are mandatory reporters of suspected abuse of older adults in the state of Ohio. Although most clergy have had training about child abuse or domestic violence, there are similarities alongside unique aspects of abuse that is targeted toward older adults. This workshop is to provide clergy with the tools to help recognize the risk factors and to know how to respond when abuse is suspected.
